I have decided that Kansas is the worst state in the country. Who the hell lives here?? I am in Hays, Kansas at my second gas stop, in the middle of a windstorm, and I am looking at the houses here and can only imagine that the people that live here must work at the McDonalds, Subway, 24/7 Store or the AmercInn Hotel because there is NOTHING else here beside dirt and wind!!!

So, I am eating some of my snacks now as I sit here and write this...

Snack #1- Jalapeno flavored Tostitos dipped in Jalapeno Cheddar dip. I had some reservations about this because I wasn't sure if Jalapeno on Jalapeno action would create a rift in the time/space continuum but all seems to be well... Or does it??? I just saw a guy with a mullet and I am thinking that I may have gotten stuck in the rift and sent back to 1984. No, wait... It's all good. He actually lives here and works at the 24/7 Store. So, no rift is present.

Snack #2- Cinnamon Brown Sugar Pop Tarts. No elaboration needed. These speak for themselves.

Drink#1- Orange Orange Vitamin Water

Drink #2- 5 Hour Energy shot. I need this as I am delusional from only having 45 mins sleep over the last 30 hours.

Aight, back to drivin!! Breaker 1-9. Breaker 1-9. Fluffy Bunny Feet over and out!!!

OK... I am getting gas in some crazy small town in Oklahoma and I'm fairly certain I am about to get raped... Phew, the rapist went inside to maybe rape the white trash chick who I rudely interrupted to pay for my gas during her smoke break....

Sidenote- Does anyone remember the Saturday night live episode where "Sean Connery" is playing Jeopardy and the category is "Therapists" but he pronounces it "The Rapists"???

Anyway...

Car Karaoke- I came to the realization that I need to make a car that is a traveling recording studio because my singing talent in the car far surpasses my shower singing talent. I mean, I'm good. People would pay to see me...

Naps... I took a short one and am now good to go for another 350 miles.

Deers... Holy Deer!!! (see what I did there??) There are tons of them and they all need prozac because I think they are suicidal!!!

Peace out from Ardmore, OK where the wind goes rushing down the plains...

Really need this blackberry app to work so I can fill you all in on how the cows look in Oklahoma and how the sunrise looks so pretty in Colby, Kansas...

The Last Few Months Have Been Ridiculous!!! November 11, 2009

First, did I spell ridiculous wrong up there?? Is it supposed to be ridiculous?? I have no idea and I don't feel like looking it up because that would go against my "journalistic" integrity of knowing how to spell a word that I use frequently... Anyway....

As a lot of you know the last few months have been retarded in regard to my past life in Denver. I have tried to close out this life as quickly as possible because, honestly, compared to my life in Houston.... my life in Denver sucked. I never realized how miserable I truly was when I was living there. My life in Houston rocks. I have great people in my life. I have wonderful friends, an amazing girl in my life that is irreplaceable and I just generally love my life here. So, anyway, I have tried to close my Denver life out quickly, but it is taking forever, and now through actions of another individual my life in Houston is being compromised. I will go into details on all of the reasons why at a later date but for now I am going to start from what is hopefully the end and work my way back....

I leave for my 16 hour drive to Denver in 7 hours and 45 minutes.... I will start there and work my way backwards... Enjoy...

I just added up the amount of money I have spent on travel back to Denver over the last 7 months whilst in the process of dealing with all of this... $6,475.00

That sucks... I could have bought three scooters with that amount of money... And, they could have been the nice scooters. Not some cheesy minibike lookin things. Like, I could have bought a mint green one, a cobalt blue one and a pearly purple one. They could have all had leather seats and I could have bought matching outfits for each one...

Jesus, Denver sucks all of my dreams away... :)

Three Hours and Twelve Minutes Until 16 Hours of Absolute Boredom November 11, 2009

The stress I am feeling regarding this trip has to be palpable. I have been alone most of the day, but I go to pick up Angelica at work in about an hour or so and I want to make sure that she doesn't feel my stress... So, I am chillin on the bed with Maggie (for those of you who dont know who Maggie is. She is pretty much the most chill dog I have ever known and, like her mom, she knows exactly what to do at all times and she seems to know when to do it also) and watchin The Flintstones movie before embarking on this dreaded trip. Most of you could probably care less about what is going on during this trip but I promise I will at least try to make it entertaining... 😊
